

CHRIST CHURCH

Cameron and Washington Streets
Alexandria, Virginia

Completed in 1773, this was George Washington's Church and his pew is still preserved today. A marker is placed at the Communion Rail where Robert E. Lee was confirmed.

Staying Easton from bottom of no the both of you. Cold and When the frost there hangs - hope if changes
for that there like cause from so few
to be here.
Our love to you,
Catherine and Alfred -
